

SOUNDER NEWS

Last Week: The Sounders played a nailbiter of a match 2 weeks ago against Milwaukee United, scoring in the final minutes, everyone driving forward (incl keeper Preston Burpo!) to force the match into 2 scoreless 10 minute "golden goal" periods, resulting in a draw.

The Sounders then hit the road, playing a pair of games in Canada, first against Calgary on August 1st, which resulted in a disappointing loss to the Mustangs, 3-0. Undaunted, the lads in white headed north to Edmonton to play Edmonton FC, the team formed by USL from the players left on the roster when the Edmonton Aviators folded early last month. Their expedition north was well rewarded, as they won handily, 2-1. Ben Somoza scored his first goal of the 2004 season in the 18th minute, volleying a Sean Michael Callahan (Schmike) cross. In the 30th minute, Jonathan Bolanos was hauled down inside the 18-yard box. The awarded a penalty kick and Welton delivered a high right footed shot that smashed off the crossbar and down into the goal to cement the lead.

A fan-produced Match Day program

VS

The Sounders face the Minnesota Thunder for the third time this season. Minnesota is currently 2 points ahead of Seattle with 3 games in hand, while Milwaukee and Seattle are fighting for the fourth and final Western Conference playoff spot. While Seattle holds a 4 point lead, Milwaukee have several matches in hand; thus a win in today's match is critical for the Sounders' playoff chances.

After a light six-game schedule in July, the Thunder play nine games in the final month of the season, seven of which are on the road. The Thunder lost to the Portland Timbers on August 5th; last weekend, the Thunder suffered losses to the Rochester Raging Rhinos and Syracuse Salty Dogs; just the second time this season the Thunder have lost two consecutive games. Will the Sounders make it three times?

Up Next:

The Sounders head north to Vancouver next Sunday, then host the Whitecaps on Weds, August 18 at 7pm. These two matches will be the last time the Puget Sounds rivals face each other this season. August 22nd will see the new Puerto Rico Islanders team, and finish their season at home on August 28th, hosting the Minnesota Thunder.

Sounders fans can listen to all matches (including away games!) on KKNW 1150 AM as well as being webcast at <http://www.newschannel1150.com>.

Next home match is Wednesday August 18 at 7:00pm v. Vancouver Whitecaps.

Sounders Remaining Home Games:

8/18 - Vancouver Whitecaps - 7pm
8/22 - Puerto Rico Islanders - 5pm
8/28 - Minnesota Thunder - 7pm
